ROTARY NEWS

UN chief Ban Ki-moon opens Korea convention

United Nations Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon was among the first to welcome Rotary members and friends to the 107th Rotary Convention, heralded as one of the largest-ever gatherings of Rotarians and the most multicultural assembly of nonprofit leaders in Korea.

He offered a message of gratitude: "Rotarians do remarkable work around the world," Ban told the thousands of attendees gathered at KINTEX, the Korea International Exhibition and Convention Center in Goyang city, on the outskirts of Seoul. "You help the United Nations reach our goals, and you help the world understand the United Nations."

He described Allan Albert, the former Rotary president who, 70 years ago this month, participated in discussions that led to the formation of the UN, as "a passionate defender of human understanding who called for people to be real factors in real peace. Together we are working to realize this vision."

Ban, the Korean national who has led the UN and its ambitious development agenda since 2007, thanked Rotary for its leadership and commitment to humanitarian causes. He highlighted Rotary's contributions to the fight against polio, in both funding and advocacy.

"The United Nations is proud to be a partner in ending this debilitating disease," he said, referring to UNICEF's role in the Global Polio Eradication Initiative. "We must keep up the fight. Please continue to raise your voices, hold your governments accountable, and campaign hard."

The opening session on Sunday morning was infused with local flavor: drummers, dancers, and martial artists warmed up the crowd with K-pop and tae kwon do before the formal remarks began.

An animated hologram of Rotary founder Paul Harris joined RI President K.R. Ravindran on stage. After telling Harris about Rotary's progress, Ravindran greeted attendees and reflected on his term as Rotary president, including a recent decision by the Council on Legislation to grant clubs more flexibility and autonomy.

"The traditional Rotary model, of weekly meetings and meals, may not be a viable proposition to the professionals of all ages we most need to attract," Ravindran said. "Your Council made more progressive changes to our constitution than any Council in history — with an eye to a future in which the business of Rotary will be conducted on a level more ambitious than ever before."

Special guests included prime ministers Hwang Kyo-ahn of South Korea, and Ranil Wickremesinghe of Ravindran's native Sri Lanka.

Announcements:

President Mark:

- Mark welcomed Club members and our Guests, Tony & Carol Crawford and Carol Tapioca. This is Carol's last visit to the Club before she leaves for her home trip to Brazil on Wednesday.
- We need to thank Geoff Magor for the enormous amount of work that has gone into a successful Community Raffle despite additional costs associated with running it. Frankston Council were unable to contribute to the printing of the tickets as in years past, which added an extra $3,000 to the Raffle expenses. Geoff's hard work was primarily responsible for actually increasing sales over last year and getting the ticket revenue to cover all expenses and still returning the $1.50 per ticket revenue to the participants. Well done, Geoff.

Secretary David:

- We need to know who is intending to come to the Club Changeover at the Sandhurst Club on Wednesday, July 6 at 6:30 for 7:00 pm. Cost is $40 pp. We have to pay the Sandhurst Club in advance, so all monies must be in by June 22. Payment can be made to the cashier at our next 2 Club meetings, or by direct transfer to the Club bank account (details on the front page of the Ho!)

PE Eric

- The incoming Board met last week and plans for the next Rotary Year were discussed and are now underway. Thanks for the incoming Board and Office holders for their support.
- The Club is talking to Elisabeth Murdoch College about running their Deb Ball later in the year. This is a large undertaking and would require support and hard work from Club members. We are meeting with the school on Friday, June 17 and those Club Members who expressed an interest in assisting with the organisation of the event are asked to attend this Planning meeting with EMC.

Geoff Magor

- Our Club sold 649 tickets in the Community Raffle which will return $973.50 to us. We were one of 75 organisation that participated in this year's Raffle.
